

Dr. Andrew M. Miller

Assistant Professor, Indigenous Studies

Department of Indigenous Language, Arts and Culture

Office: 1523 (Regina Campus)

Extension: 3207

Email: amiller@fnuniv.ca

Credentials: BA (Geography - U of Texas, 1992)

Masters of Forestry Science (Northern Arizona University, 2003)

PhD (U of Manitoba, 2010)

Research Interests:

- Ethnoecology
- Indigenous environmental and resource systems
- Indigenous knowledge of minerals
- Community-based research

Expertise:

- Cultural landscapes
- Indigenous use of fire
- Rarámuri (Tarahumara) ethnoecology
- Anishinaabe ethnoecology

Courses Taught: INDG 201 Contemporary Issues in Indigenous Studies
INDG 222 Indigenous and Traditional Ecological Knowledge
INDG 236 Indigenous Economies, Environments and Geographies
INDG 280 Research Issues in Indigenous Studies
INDG 300 Indigenous Peoples and Development Change in Latin America