

Dr. E. Kathleen O'Reilly

Associate Professor, Indigenous Education

Department of Indigenous Education, Health and Social Work

Office: 1515 (Regina Campus)

Extension: 3256

Email: koreilly@fnuniv.ca

Credentials: B.A. (Regina)

B.E.A.D. (Regina)

M.Ed. (Regina)

PhD (McGill)

Research Interests:

- Justice Studies
- Anti-Racist Pedagogy
- Indigenizing Teaching
- Indigenizing the Academy
- First Nations students
- Research with Indigenous Peoples
- Dream Work and Writing
- Self-study
- Experiences of First Nation Teachers in Public Schools
- Working with Elders
- Teachers' Lives and Work
- Student Memories of Teachers and the Influence of Teachers on Their Lives

Expertise:

- Justice Studies
- Anti-Racist Pedagogy
- Students At-Risk
- Memory-Work
- Indigenizing Teaching and Curricula
- Indigenizing the Academy
- Narrative Inquiry
- Self-Study
- Memory-Work
- First Nation Teacher Education

- Inclusive Education
- Research with Indigenous Peoples
- Working with Elders

Courses Taught: EPS 100 - Introduction to Education: Principles and Practices
 EPS 116 - Communication Skills
 EPS 200 - Principles and Practices of Secondary Teaching
 EPS 215 - Principles and Practices of Elementary Teaching
 EPS 225 - Principles and Practices of Elementary Teaching: II
 EPS 350 - Principles and Practices of Secondary Teaching: II
 EDRG 215 - The Teaching of Reading
 EIND 205 – Introduction to Indigenous Education
 EIND 305 - Curriculum and Instruction Adaptation for Indigenous Education
 EIST 300 - Introduction to Indigenous Studies Education
 EINL 225 - Indigenous Language Arts: Oral and Written Communications
 ELNG205 - Language and Literacy Development
 EISE 332 - First Nations/Minority Special Education
 EPSY225 - Student Learning and Achievement
 ELNG 325 – The Teaching of Writing
 351 - Justice Studies
 ED 870 – Research Methods with Indigenous Peoples ED
 EAHR 870 - Trends and Issues in Aboriginal Adult Education