Find a Journal Article through Summon

Thanks to Summon, finding journal articles has never been easier. Summon is located at the Archer Library Quick Search screen at <http://www.uregina.ca/library/> Click Summon and begin your search.

The screenshot shows the Dr. John Archer Library website. At the top, there is a yellow banner with the text "Dr. John Archer Library". Below this, there are navigation links: "Hours", "Search/Find", "Services", "About/Contact Us", "Copyright", and "Help Library Home". The main heading is "Dr. John Archer Library". Below the heading, there are two buttons: "Summon" and "Catalogue". Underneath these buttons is a search bar with the text "Quick Search for Articles and More..." and a "Search" button.

Summon searches the U of R databases for all kinds of publications (not just journal articles). It brings back results which can be refined to show you only the items you are interested in.

The screenshot shows the U of R Summon search results page. At the top, there is the U of R logo and the text "U of R Summon". To the right of the logo is a search bar containing the text "Residential schools" and a "Search Library" button. Below the search bar, there are two radio buttons: "Keep search refinements" and "New Search". Below this, there is a line of text: "Search Results: Your search for Residential schools returned 296,788 results".

Once you've obtained search results, start checking off refinements to specify the content you are looking for.

If you want a journal article, check it off!
Only from Canada? Check it off!

Each time you refine your search, the results are automatically updated.

The screenshot shows the search refinement options in Summon. There are three main sections: "Refine your search", "Subject Terms", and "Language".
1. "Refine your search" includes checkboxes for: "Items with full text online", "Limit to articles from scholarly publications, including peer-review", "Exclude Newspaper Articles", and "Add results beyond your library's collection". Below this is the "Content Type" section with checkboxes for: "Any", "Newspaper Article (153,127)", "Journal Article (137,212)", "Trade Publication Article (5,632)", "Book Review (1,191)", and "Book (890)".
2. "Subject Terms" includes checkboxes for: "Any", "united states (13,734)", "studies (10,240)", "public, environmental & occupational health (6,343)", "experimental/theoretical (5,040)", "canada (4,133)", and "sociology (4,041)".
3. "Language" includes checkboxes for: "Any", "English (136,757)", "French (43)", "German (28)", "Turkish (21)", "Croatian (5)", and "Czech (3)".
Below the "Subject Terms" section, there is a "Publication Date" section with a bar chart showing the distribution of results over time.

After you've refined your search, you are ready to click on the results. In this case, under the title of Residential Schools Update, click on Journal Article: Full Text Online

The screenshot shows the search results for "Residential Schools Update". At the top, there is a yellow starburst icon with the word "online" inside. Below this is the title "Residential Schools Update" by Fenwick, Fred. The text below the title reads: "Law Now, ISSN 0841-2626, 03/2003, Volume 27, Issue 4, 0 ...Beginning in the 1800s and extending into the 1970s the R Presbyterian Churches ran residential schools where native Litigation, Native schools". At the bottom of the result, there is a link: "Journal Article: Full Text Online".
