Find a Journal Article through Summon

Thanks to Summon, finding journal articles has never been easier. Summon is located at the Archer Library Quick Search screen at <http://www.uregina.ca/library/>. Click Summon and begin your search.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Dr. John Archer Library website with links for Hours, Search/Find, Services, About/Contact Us, Copyright, and Help. Below this is the 'Dr. John Archer Library' header. The main search area features a 'Summon' button, a 'Catalogue' button, and a search box with the text 'Quick Search for Articles and More...'. A 'Search' button is located to the right of the search box.

Summon searches the U of R databases for all kinds of publications (not just journal articles). It brings back results which can be refined to show you only the items you are interested in.

The screenshot shows the Summon search results page. The search term 'Residential schools' is entered in the search box. Below the search box are radio buttons for 'Keep search refinements' and 'New Search'. The results section shows 'Search Results: Your search for Residential schools returned 296,788 results'. There are three filter panels: 'Refine your search', 'Subject Terms', and 'Language'. The 'Refine your search' panel has several options, with 'Journal Article' selected. The 'Subject Terms' panel has 'Any' selected. The 'Language' panel has 'Any' selected. A bar chart is visible below the 'Publication Date' section.

Once you've obtained search results, start checking off refinements to specify the content you are looking for.

If you want a journal article, check it off!
Only from Canada? Check it off!
In English? Check it off!

Each time you refine your search, the results are automatically updated.

This screenshot shows the refinement filters for the search. The 'Refine your search' panel includes options for 'Items with full text online', 'Limit to articles from scholarly publications, including peer-review', 'Exclude Newspaper Articles', and 'Add results beyond your library's collection'. The 'Content Type' panel has 'Journal Article' selected. The 'Subject Terms' panel has 'Any' selected. The 'Language' panel has 'Any' selected. A bar chart is visible below the 'Publication Date' section.

After you've refined your search, you are ready to click on the results. In this case, under the title of Residential Schools Update, click on Journal Article: Full Text Online

The screenshot shows the search results for 'Residential Schools Update'. The title is 'Residential Schools Update' by Fenwick, Fred.
