

Indigenous Access and Transition Education Certificate

An 8 Month Program to Prepare You for Success
Northern Campus - Prince Albert, SK

Program Starts September 2015

Ready to Take the Next Step?

Enroll Today in a Program Designed to Prepare You for University

WHAT IS THE INDIGENOUS ACCESS AND TRANSITION EDUCATION CERTIFICATE (IATEC)?

- A program that will prepare you for success in post-secondary education in any area
- 8 months to build on your current skills and abilities with strong student support
- Earn transferable university credits

WHO SHOULD ENROLL?

- Aboriginal & Non-Aboriginal students
- Mature students

WHERE IS IATEC BEING OFFERED?

- First Nations University of Canada's Northern Campus located in Prince Albert, Saskatchewan

WHEN IS IATEC BEING OFFERED?

- September 2015 – April 2016

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS IN ATTENDING?

- Be with the same classmates over an 8 – month period
- Family like setting with small classes
- Prepares you for university personally and emotionally with First Nations teachings and perspectives

Fall Semester*

AMTH 091 Mathematics I
INDG 104 Introduction to Indigenous Higher Learning
ISW 377 Introduction to Traditional Self-Healing
RDWT 120 Reading and Writing I

Winter Semester*

AMTH 092 Mathematics II
BIOL 140 Human Biology or CHEM 100
INDG 100 Introduction to Indigenous Studies
RDWT 121 Reading and Writing II

All IATEC courses are 3 credit university courses recognized through the University of Regina's Centre for Continuing Education

Call an FNUniv Advisor to find out more:

(306) 765-3333 /Toll Free: 1-866-526-6578 ext. 7000

Applications now being accepted!