

Dr. Arok Wolvengrey

Professor, Algonquian Languages and Linguistics

Department Head of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Cultures

Office: 4011 (Regina Campus)

Extension: 3310

Email: awolvengrey@fnuniv.ca

Credentials: Ph.D., University of Amsterdam
M.A., University of Manitoba
B.A. (Hons.), University of Saskatchewan

Research Interests:

- Cree Language Studies, Literacy, and Linguistics
- Syntax, Morphosyntax, and Functional (Discourse) Grammar
- Algonquian Language Family

Current Projects:

- Cree Online Dictionary Development – visit itwêwina.oahpa.no and www.creedictionary.com
- Algonquian Linguistic Atlas – www.atlas-ling.ca
- Series Editor: First Nations Language Readers, U of R Press Algonquian Language Family

Courses Taught: CREE 206: Cree Linguistics
SAUL 206: Saulteaux (Ojibwe) Linguistics
CREE 225: Cree Transcription
CREE 310: Cree Phonology
CREE 311: Cree Morphology
CREE 413: Cree Syntax
LING 100: Introductory Linguistics (in-class and online)
LING 213: Syntax
LING 230: Survey of American Indian Languages
LING 413: Seminar in Syntax
LING 813: Advanced Topics in Syntax
LING 890: Directed Readings in Algonquian Linguistics

Select Publications: Mcleod, Neal, with Arok Wolvengrey. 100 Days of Cree. Regina: University of Regina Press, 2016.

Semantic and Pragmatic Functions in Plains Cree Syntax. Utrecht, Netherlands: LOT, 2011.

Okimāsis, Jean, and Arok Wolvengrey. How to Spell it in Cree. Regina: miywāsin ink, 2008.

nēhiyawēwin: itwêwina / Cree: Words. Compiled by Arok Wolvengrey: Regina: U of R Press, 2001.