

Dr. Arok Wolvengrey

Professor, Algonquian Languages and Linguistics
Department of Indigenous Languages, Arts and Cultures

Office: 1549 (Regina Campus)

Extension: 3310

Email: awolvengrey@fnuniv.ca

Credentials: Ph.D., University of Amsterdam

M.A., University of Manitoba

B.A. (Hons.), University of Saskatchewan

- Research Interests:
- Cree Language Studies, Literacy, and Linguistics
 - Syntax, Morphosyntax, and Functional (Discourse) Grammar
 - Algonquian Language Family
 - Cree Online Dictionary – visit www.creedictionary.com
 - Series Editor: First Nations Language Readers, U of R Press

- Expertise:
- Cree Language Studies, Literacy, and Linguistics
 - Syntax, Morphosyntax, and Functional (Discourse) Grammar
 - Algonquian Language Family

Courses Taught: CREE 206: Cree Linguistics
CREE 225: Cree Transcription
CREE 310: Cree Phonology
CREE 311: Cree Morphology
CREE 413: Cree Syntax
LING 100: Introductory Linguistics (in-class and online)
LING 213: Syntax
LING 230: Survey of American Indian Languages
LING 413: Seminar in Syntax
LING 813 (Advanced Topics in Syntax)
LING 890 (Directed Readings in Algonquian Linguistics)